CASE STUDY: SERVING THE DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS AGENCY FOR OVER 5 YEARS.

Language Connections served the Defense Information Systems Agency in Washington, DC for over 5 years. We expertly met this large, important client's complicated specifications, handling 3 major challenges.

1. Security clearance:

Language Connections supplied interpreters who not only had a background in the specific, technical subject matter of the department, but also every level of security clearance.

2. Logistics:

DISA often contacted us for urgent meetings—usually within 48 hours or less. They also had offices spread across multiple buildings, requiring us to pay close attention to both where and when we scheduled deaf interpreters.

3. Volume:

Language Connections was proud to quickly and capably handle the large number of requests from DISA. We quickly became a reliable and constant service provider for their needs.

TESTIMONIALS & CLIENTS

Language Connections provided an excellent team of ASL interpreters for one of our events. They definitely met our deaf participants' needs. The interpreters were professional and personable, making a great impression on the participants. We'll certainly go back to Language Connections for future ASL interpretation needs!
